

Cig Harvey
29th February – August 2016

The photographs and artist books of Cig Harvey have been widely exhibited and remain in the permanent collections of major museums and collections, including the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, Texas; the Farnsworth Art Museum, Rockland, Maine; and the International Museum of Photography and Film at the George Eastman House, Rochester, New York. Cig began working in a darkroom at thirteen and has been dedicated to photography ever since. She grew up in the deep valleys of Devon in the UK, and came to the States for her MFA in 1999, after years spent living in Barcelona and Bermuda. Cig Harvey's first monograph, You Look At Me Like An Emergency (Schilt Publishing, 2012) is a collection of pictures and written vignettes made over a ten year period. It sold out quickly and was named one of PDN's Best Books of the Year 2012. Pro Photographer magazine ran an in-depth feature, "Chance: Cig Harvey's deceptively simple photographs tap into the universal elements of the human experience: love, loss, longing and belonging."

Cig Harvey's second monograph, Gardening At Night (Schilt Publishing, 2015) was published in conjunction with solo shows at Robert Mann Gallery, New York, Robert Klein Gallery, Boston and Paul Kopeiken Gallery, Los Angeles. The book received critical acclaim all over. The International Wall Street Journal said of the series, "Though the subjects and setting are familiar to us, we cannot help but feel that Cig Harvey has led us through the looking glass to a world of wonder. In the way that twilight is not quite day and not quite night, the photographs of Gardening At Night are stories not yet fully developed, while still capturing the unexpected yet oddly harmonious moments that surround us daily."

All prices are inclusive of VAT, correct as of August 2016. To purchase a framed print there is an additional cost of €100.
