

Sophie Zénon – Earth, Sky, Water

French-Italian photographer Sophie Zénon is versatile. Sometimes the documentary photographer in her prevails, then she manifests herself as a virtuoso artist who masters many different techniques. Zénon is fascinated by that which touches the sacred mystery, creates images at once enigmatic and hypnotic, out of time, as close to the sensation, playing on the presence/absence of concepts and memory. In doing so she always tries to find a balance between the original image (reality) and the subsequent visions, between the figurative and the abstract. In this exhibition, with both black-and-white and colour photography, one can see wonderful work which Zénon made in Mongolia, Siberia, Cambodia and France, from 1996 to 2014. In addition to photographic prints, photographic light boxes are also displayed with prints on Japanese paper, as well as the plexiglass and light installation Le Ciel de ma Mémoire.
